JOCKEY CLUB ACTION NEAR

EASTERN RACING DATES MAY BE NAMED AT ITS MEETING THIS WEEK.

Membership Vacancies May Also Be Filled from Ranks of Newly Arrived Turfmen—Foxhall P. Keene Back in New York.

New York, February 7.—A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club will be held on Wednesday when the question of dates for this year will be discussed and possibly decided. It is also probable that the appointments of officials will be made. There is not likely to be any decided changes from the old list. From what can be gathered from semi-official sources there will not be any great changes from the dates of last year, which indicates that the opening of the season will be about May 20.

There may be a meeting of the Jockey Club members on Thursday as there are five vacancies in the membership list, which is limited to fifty, some of which have been open for three or four years. So far there has not been a proposal for membership, but as there are many new and influential men joining the ranks of thoroughbred enthusiasts, it is possible some proposals will be made in the near future.

Applications cannot be made for membership. Members can only be chosen through proposal by one member, seconded by another and voted upon by those present at the meeting. Among those who may be proposed are Senator J. N. Camden, Gifford A. Cochran and James Butler. The latter leaves tomorrow for an extended trip to Palm Beach, Havana, New Orleans and then to Juarez, Mexico, in which racing plant he is one of the principal stockholders.

Leopold Kahn, who was once the owner of several horses, including Ben Loyal and Black Chief, and a great advocate of racing for recreation and health, was buried today. He had been a sufferer from liver trouble for many years. Mr. Kahn had been associated with George F. Johnson for nearly thirty years in the real estate business.

Foxhall P. Keene has returned from his hunting trip in South Carolina. "I have lived on little else than terrapin, deer, quail and snips for two weeks and never felt better in my life. I saw Andrew Miller two days ago and he has practically recovered from all his ailments."

Charles Hill, who has the four colts belonging to Mr. Mackay in charge, says they are improving in condition every day. "Mr. Mackay is asking high prices for them because he believes all are high-class horses. Baffouilleur and Esprit-Gaulois are valued at $15,000 each and both are beautifully bred and fine colts. For Trouble Fete he asks $10,000 and $6,500 for Mahwah. I think every one will win stakes," concluded Mr. Hill.

The six two-year-olds imported by F. Ambrose Clark will be quartered at Durland's for the time being.

Mrs. Herman B. Duryea has sent an agent to Europe to try to bring the horses owned by the late Mr. Duryea to this country, including Durbar II. There are betwen thirty-five and forty in the band. Special dispensation will have to be granted by the French government to enable the older horses to leave that country. The majority of the younger horses are now in England awaiting shipment. The disposition of them, if they can be gotten here, has not yet been settled, but it is intimated the majority will be sold.

HAVANA RACING STATISTICS.

With the decision of the seven-race program at Oriental Park Sunday, February 6, the Cuba-American Jockey Club has completed forty-six days of its scheduled meeting of eighty-two days. During that time 267 races have been run and $109,200 was distributed among 116 owners. H. G. Bedwell is repeating his success of last year and is at the head of the list of winning owners, with the goodly sum of $12,365 to his credit. The owners who have won $325 or more are as follows:

HORSES WHICH WON IN THE COLORS OF E. HERZ IN THE RACING OF 1915

For several years prior to 1915 Emil Herz had maintained a small racing stable in England with a fair measure of success. The oncoming of the great war brought many discomforts to turfmen and led to his return to this country, where a number of years ago he raced extensively and was part owner of the high-class horse, McChesney. Prior to coming himself he sent his useful handicap horse, Short Grass, to this country. With him he achieved the most important successes that fell to him in our racing of last year. Here he acquired possession of a good colt in Eagle and the two-year-old Daddy's Choice, both of which won good races for him, his stable record for the year being:

ANOTHER RAINY INVASION

UNWELCOME DOWNPOUR SPOILS NEW ORLEANS TRACK AND DEPLETES THE CARD.

Skeer Face Takes the Main Race Yesterday and Wins Mr. Wingfield His First Race of the Meeting.

New Orleans, La., February 7.—Hard rain during the night transformed the track conditions again and was responsible for wholesale withdrawals from most of today's races at the Fair Grounds. No less than thirty-six horses were withdrawn from an entry list of eighty-one. Constant work by the harrows improved the going considerably as the afternoon progressed and the time of the fourth race at the seven-eighths distance was surprisingly good. This race featured the card and in its original form embraced some of the best horses here. The purse was won by Skeer Face, with Greenwood and Celto in the other places. The victory of Skeer Face was the first that George W. Wingfield's Nevada Stock Farm has scored at this meeting. Father Riley was again a disappointment, for he quit badly in the race.

The Cochran establishment again furnished a beaten favorite in the two-year-old race when Yellow Sally failed to overtake Conowingo. The latter was ridden in good style by the diminutive McAtee. This youngster also rode Skeer Face intelligently and had he been a bit stronger he would have scored with Alfadir. The latter succumbed in the last stride to Pan Handle, which enable W. Gerst to score his initial victory here.

Following the running of the fourth race, jockey Mott was suspended for ten days by the judges for rough riding. He caused interference from which Skeer Face and Celto suffered during the running.

Beginning with Monday next the post time for the first race will be 2:30 p. m.

Jockey Robinson has been suspended for five days by the starter for disobedience while at the post in the fourth race.

A. L. Kirby, acting for J. B. Respess, has disposed of Miss Fannie on private terms to W. W. Woodard.

It has been decided to eliminate Mardi Gras day as ladies' day because of the congestion that would be entailed. Only four more ladies' days will be given.

For practices in violation of the policies of the Business Men's Racing Association, E. T. Crum, of St. Louis, has been denied all provileges, including admission to the grounds. In addition his license as authorized agent for E. B. Elkins has been withdrawn. Crum is alleged to have written a letter and signed the name of E. B. Elkins to it, asking a gentleman to bet on the Elkins horses and telling him that it was he who was sending him the information.

Manager Joseph A. Murphy stated that he had heard nothing officially about the Hot Spring meeting and, that while he would have no official connection with it on account of its conflicting with his engagements in the east, he would do all in his power to help make the meeting a success. "I have many friends at the Springs," he said, this afternoon, "as I conducted two meetings at Essex Park there and I would do anthing in reason to aid them to success."

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS FROM ABROAD.

New York, February 7.—The Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha arrived from London with twenty-seven thoroughbreds in good condition. The shipment includes six two-year-olds for F. Ambrose Clark, four being fillies and two colts. Both the colts are by Dark Ronald, one being a brown and the other a bay.

Nine broodmares arrived for W. R. Coe. According to the breeding of their ancestors, nearly all of which were stake winners during their careers, they are a choice collection and will add greatly to the thoroughbred blood of this country. Following is the list:

Fair Maid, by Orvieto—Tirara, in foal to Myram: Laughaway, by Cicero—Chaffaway, in foal to Primer; Mavis, by Missel Thursh—Melete, in foal to Land League; Home Bird, by Thrush—Money Holme, in foal to Willonyx; Isette, in foal to Bridge of Allan; Garner, in foal to Winstanley; Bibury Belle, in foal to Cicero; Berenice, in foal to Valens; Catacomb, by Ladas—Mystic Shade, in foal to Stedfast.

The offspring of all these mares have been nominated for the Futurity of 1918 by Mr. Coe. They have been shipped direct to Silverbrook Farm at Shrewsbury, N. J., which has been leased or purchased by W. F. Presgrave and E. E. Burnett.

Six yearlings for Jefferson Livingston are a fine band, being larger than many two-year-olds which have been shipped across the Atlantic this winter. There is not a small or scruby one in the half dozen and nearly, or quite, without exception they show exceptional quality.

They are as follows: Black filly by Cherry King—Desmona; black filly by ——Royal Ann; bay colt by Day Comet—Beautiful Sight; brown colt by Ampelion—Potamides; bay colt by Fugelman—Delicia.

A four-year-old chestnut colt has been sent over for J. P. Kirlin and he will be shipped to that gentleman's country home in Locust Valley.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Canadian racing season will probably open at Woodbine on Saturday, May 20, and close at the same track Saturday, September 30.

Trainer Thomas McCreery has gone down to the Johnson farm near Bound Brook, N. J., to look over a collection of young thoroughbreds, many of which are the get of Bonnibert. Should he like the youngsters and their prices he will make some purchases.

Forty entries at $25 each are stipulated for in the substitute Grand National Steeplechase, to be run at Gatwick Park on March 24, and acceptors will pay $100 each more to start. The race is to be called the Racecourse Association Steeplechase, worth $2,500, and a $625 cup to be given by the Liverpool Club. It is open to five-year-olds and upwards over a course of four miles, 856 yards, and the weights will range from 133 up to 175 pounds.

The amount of added money at the V. R. C. autumn meeting will total $88,500, which is an increase of $1,250 over that given last season. There has been no alteration in the stakes to be won over the Newmarket Handicap and Australian Cup, but in the future the Champion Stakes—to be known as "The King's Plate"—will only be worth $5,000 instead of $7,500. If a change must be made, why not call it King George's Plate?—Sydney Referee.

MANAGER WINN BACK IN EL PASO.

El Paso, Texas, February 7.—Manager M. J. Winn returned today from his eastern trip and states that things pertaining to racing in the east presents a glowing outlook for the coming season. He states that James Butler of New York and a party of friends will be here for a visit on February 26.

Jockey M. Buxton arrived from the west and will accept mounts for the remainder of the season.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

D. G., Indianapolis, Ind. It was a losing transaction.

John F., Toronto, Ont. Riposta's show price in the race named was 7 to 10 and settlement should be on that basis.

F. F., Cincinnati, O. The horses were coupled because trained by the same man. It is a thing that occurs frequently. If a man backed the entry any member of the entry starting ran for him. Had it won he would have been entitled to payment. In its losing the backer lost also.

F. S., Chicago. Brighouse had belonged to T. Hatfield, but had been sold before his race of February 4 and Jake Argent was all that Hatfield had in the race. Also it was a selling race in which an owner could start but one horse, for which reason the two horses were not coupled in the entries published in Daily Racing Form.

AN IMPORTED COLT CHANGES HANDS.

New York, February 7.—Michael Miles, a jockey who has been riding flat races successfully in Austria-Hungary, has returned to New York to remain indefinitely. A few days ago he purchased from A. J. Joyner the three-year-old chestnut colt Engelbert, by Caius—Orla, and sent him down to Gravesend, where he will be trained by Morris Welsh, brother to the well-konwn trainer, Thomas Welsh, who is now abroad buying horses for prominent American turfmen. Engelbert, now a three-year-old, was bred in Germany, foaled in France and received his racing education and racing experience in England. He is a large and rangy chestnut colt. In England he raced creditably in good company, and it is generally believed that if he had not been a racing prospect worth while Joyner would not have incurred the expense of buying him and bringing him to this country.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

At Athens yesterday King Constantine signed a decree calling to the colors the members of all classes from 1892 to 1914, inclusive, who are living abroad, with the exception of those who are now living in Russia, Turkey, Bulgaria and Roumania. This decree will add to the Greek army about 90,000 men, many of them veterans of the Balkan war.

The Norwegian steamships Bogstad, Galveston to Gothenburg with a cargo of cotton, and Drammensfjord, New York to Bergen with a general cargo, have been taken into Kirkwall. The Norwegian steamship Skard has been released.

At Paris General Nicholas Victor Delmotte has died from illness contracted at the front. He was one of the heroes of the retreat from Charlevoix, during which he commanded the rear-guard brigade of the French Seventeenth Army Corps.

Time, 24, 48⅗, 1:16. Track slow.

Winner—Ch. c, by Peter Pan—My Baby (trained by H. Roseacher).
Went to post at 2:39. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. PAN HANDLE was badly outpaced for the first three-eighths, but saved much ground when coming into the stretch and, finishing fast, got up to win in the last stride. ALFADIR raced well and but for losing ground on the turns and being weakly ridden at the end would have won. GENTLEWOMAN set a fast early pace and tired fast in the last eighth. DONNER ran well up most of the way. TZE-LSI ran a good half mile. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.
Scratched—24565 Frisky, 113; 24302 Glomer, 115; 24874 Illuminator, 116; 24765³Politician, 109; 24874 Luzzi, 106; 24823 Bernini, 106; 19084 John Douglas, 109.

Time, 24⅘, 49⅖, 1:15⅕, 1:41⅘, 1:48⅗. Track slow.

Winner—B. f, by Hastings—Friendship (trained by D. E. Stewart).
Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. CADENZA moved up fast after going a half mile and, heading DUDE in the last eighth, won going away. DUDE showed the most speed, but tired after setting the pace to midway of the stretch. PLEASUREVILLE was taken back on the first turn, but ran well and finished gamely. SURPASSING was well beaten after going a half mile. MATER raced prominently for three-quarters. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—24786³Jessie Louise, 112; (19845)Injury, 119; (24716)'Ataboy, 112.

Juarez Entries and Past Performances for Tuesday, February 8.

WEATHER CLEAR. TRACK FAST.

The figures under the heading "Rec." in the entries below show the best time of each horse at the distance, since January 1, 1911, no matter where it finished. In cases where record was made on other than a fast or good track, abbreviations show track conditions.

Racing starts at 2:30 p. m. (Chicago time, 3:30.) ×Runs well in mud. ⊕Superior mud runner. (M) maidens. *Apprentice allowance.
